Interactive Play Skills Instructor Course

Kurset foregår på engelsk

Kursusindhold:

This course will cover:

- Practical and theory teaching on how to adjust, adapt and implement interactive play as a motivational positive reinforcement strategy into your work with dogs.
- Finding the play style that each individual dog finds reinforcing and helping their guardians to put it in to practice.
- How to structure a motivational interactive play development plan with different types of dogs.
- Environmental and behavioural considerations.
- Avoiding over-arousal and problematic behaviours.

Saturday: The theory side of the workshop followed by Craig working 3 demo dogs as well as questions and answers.

Sunday: Practical day with 8 instructors working one of their own dogs each as well as questions and answers.

Deltagere: Kredsinstruktører og Lokalforeningsinstruktører.
Der er plads til 8 deltagere med hund* og 30 deltagere uden hund.

Instruktør: Craig Ogilvie (UK) – kurset foregår på engelsk!

Craig Ogilvie makes you the centre of your dog's world. Having spent a great deal of time training dogs all over Europe, Craig is licensed to test and train dog internationally in the working dog sport called Mondioring, which consists of Obidience, Agility and Criminal Apprehension. Craig is on the very few experienced and qualified Civilian Police Dog Training Instructors in the U.K., as well as a dog behaviour practitioner, seminar leader, author and public speaker. His passion and study of training, interacting and communicating with dogs led to his discovery of the "Interactive Play Experience" and "How to Become the Centre of Your Dogs World". Craig has been delivering his systems worldwide via sell-out workshops, seminars and online training, helping dog lovers all over the world to achieve their goals.
